The Home Mission Society and the Ladies Social Circle of the Presbyterian church held their regular monthly meeting yesterday afternoon in the church. Called to order by president, Mrs. Johnston. Hymn singing, Miss Mattie Brown, leader; prayer by Mrs. Leonard; hymn and responsive reading of a portion of 96th Psalm and of John 4:35 to 38; roll call and scripture verses. Minutes of last meeting read and approved. A number of subscribers to literature for the society gave in their names to Mrs. Payne, librarian. Reports of visiting committees heard. The president decided to hold the committees as they are until after January 1st.

The society then had the pleasure of listening to the report of Mrs. W. B. Leonard of the work of the Synodical mission meeting at Oklahoma City recently. Mrs. Leonard seemed to have skimmed the cream from papers read and remarks of able church and missionary workers and brought to the society here valuable and helpful ideas, which acted upon, will be of benefit to the society. Mrs. Hartner read an interesting article on the state of the church in Corea Mexico, the home topic, was only mentioned, as time was limited.

Excerpts from the dailies in regard to China was read by Mrs. Dawson. A hymn and prayer by Miss Mattie Brown closed the missionary meeting.

The Ladies Social Circle went into business session. Reports from committees on finance and and refreshments and building for holding bazaar beginning next Thursday, were heard. On account of absence of several members a portion of business was left to be finished tomorrow afternoon at Mrs. Leonard's, where the work of the bazaar will be about completed. Adjourned to meet the 3rd Thursday in December with Mrs. Dr. Johnston.
